TARGetAMR Conference 2025 – Abstract Submission Guidelines

The TARGetAMR Network invites delegates to submit abstracts for presentations at the TARGetAMR Conference, taking place on Thursday 14th – Friday 15th May 2026 at The Studio, 7 Cannon St, Birmingham B2 5EP.

We welcome submissions from all disciplines – science, policy, social science, and the arts – reflecting our ethos:

AMR is everyone's challenge. Your voice matters in the fight against AMR.

We will be offering two types of presentation slots at the conference:

- Flash Talks – 3 minutes in length, followed by Q&A (approximately 15 slots available)
- Short Talks – 12 minutes in length, followed by Q&A (6 slots available)

Both formats are excellent opportunities to showcase your work and gain visibility among a diverse audience. We encourage early submission to secure your preferred slot.

Call for Abstracts Timeline:

Open: Tuesday 3rd February 2026

Close: Friday 20th March 2026 at 5pm

Notification of accepted presentations: Friday 17th April 2026

Deadline for accepting invitation to present and register for conference: Friday 24th April 2026.

Abstract Guidelines:

Submit abstracts via the online Microsoft Form (link to be provided).

Title: Limited to 100 characters.

Abstract text: Maximum 300 words. Suggested sub-sections: Lay summary, Background/hypothesis, Objective, Methods, Results, Conclusion.

Write in clear English, define all abbreviations on first use.

Include presenting author's full name, affiliation, and email. The presenting author must deliver the presentation in person.

Selection Criteria:

All applications will be reviewed by the TARGetAMR Leadership Team. We are looking for innovative, impactful contributions that align with our ethos and demonstrate:

- Scientific/technical quality and practical relevance
- Contribution to AMR research, policy, or public engagement
- Evidence of impact or pathways to impact
- Inclusivity and diversity of perspectives

Guidance Once Accepted:

Accepted abstracts will be featured on our website and event materials. Presenters must provide a short biography, photo, and affiliation details upon acceptance.
